GODSPELL

After a very long intermission, theatre is back! The Chippewa valley Theatre Guild's Encore 40th Anniversary begins with the Broadway Musical, Godspell.

Prepare ye for one of the longest running and most beloved musicals of all time. Combining improvisation and contemporary storytelling to illustrate the parables found in The Gospel According to Matthew, Godspell has entertained audiences around the world. The fun-filled score, by Stephen Schwartz, who also wrote the smash hit Wicked, incorporates a variety of styles including pop, folk rock, gospel and vaudeville. Many of the songs featured in the show, including Day by Day, Learn Your Lessons Well, All For The Best, All Good Gifts, Prepare Ye The Way and By My Side have become staples of the American Musical Theatre and pop culture alike. This uplifting musical proclaims a message of tolerance, kindness and hope that is sure to resonate with family members of all ages.

See Godspell, September 30th through October 3rd at Jamf Theatre at the Pablo Center. For tickets, go online at cvtg.org or Pablo.org or call 715/832-7529.
