

PRESS RELEASE - CHIPPEWA VALLEY COMMUNITY CHORUS
JANUARY 7, 2021

The Chippewa Valley Community Chorus is embarking on a unique season this spring. It is joining the many great local organizations in adapting to the current times by going virtual. Though this is a new challenge, it is an exciting one. It will allow us to bring together members not only from the Chippewa Valley but also from across the country. We will be keeping to our short spring season, rehearsing Tuesdays January 12th-March 16th from 7-8:30 pm, and will culminate the season by compiling a recorded virtual concert to share with those in our communities. The format will be different, meeting via zoom with one hour of rehearsing music for the concert followed by a half-hour relaxed sing-a-long format. We will give members the option of participating in one or the other parts of the rehearsals or both if they would like. Our director, accompanist, and board are all collaborating to make this unique season enjoyable for all, and we hope to continue to bring music to those around us. After all, we believe that singing and working together is the way we can change the world.

The Chippewa Valley Community Chorus is a local, non-audition, choir that is run through a volunteer board and has been in existence for over 30 years. During a typical season, members of the chorus come from throughout the Chippewa Valley to participate. The Chorus holds rehearsals on Tuesday evenings beginning after the first of the year and performs in the early spring. This allows people to make a short-term commitment and still have a fun experience. Our music varies from classical/religious to popular and gospel. The number of chorus members ranges from 50-60 individuals.

For more information please contact Kati Stacy at 920-749-5384, visit our website tinyurl.com/thevcvc or email the board at chippewavalleycc@gmail.com