Sassha Rongholt Joins Charter Bank as Internal Auditor

Eau Claire, Wis, - Charter Bank is proud to announce that Sassha Rongholt has joined the Charter Bank as the Internal Auditor. She will be responsible for the internal audit and review of all functions performed by bank personnel, for establishing the bank's Risk Based Audit Program, and the timely execution of both internal and external audits in accordance with the annual audit plan.

Rongholt comes to Charter Bank with 10 years of internal audit experience within the financial service line and 16 years of banking experience. Most recently, she was the Internal Audit Manager at Wipfli LLP in Eau Claire. Rongholt has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting from DeVry University in Chicago.

"I am looking forward to being able to contribute in the future growth and success of Charter Bank," comments Rongholt. "At my former position, I helped advised a lot of different clients on how to implement effective controls that would help them achieve a successful future and now I get to be personally involved in our Bank's success, which is very exciting."

"Sassha comes to us with extensive experience," state Paul Kohler, President and CEO of Charter Bank. "This will help us as we continue to grow and expand our reach into western Wisconsin."

Originally from Chicago, she now lives in Osseo with her husband, his two grown daughters and their two sons. In her downtime, she loves spending time with family playing board games finding new hiking trails and enjoying the outdoors.
